GENERAL HERRERA DESERTS CARRANZA

AND LEADS TWO THOUSAND MEN TO VILLA BAND—WASHING-TON AROUSED OVER NEW DEVELOPMENT.

Former Military Governor of Chihuahua Renounces His Allegiance To Head of De Facto Government and Joins Villa.

Columbus, N. M., March 23.—General Luis Herrera, until recently Carranza military governor of Chihuahua, has renounced Carranza and announced himself in favor of Villa taking the field in western Chihuahua with 2,000 troops, according to reliable information received here.

The exact place at which General Herrera's troops are encamped was not indicated in the message which reached Columbus from a source that always has been found reliable. It is believed, however, that the troops, most of whom recently constituted the Carranza garrison at Chihuahua City, are somewhere between San Pedro and Chihuahua and are preparing to work north and west toward the American punitive expedition in the field under General Pershing.

The sentiment of the people in this district which lies about seventy miles directly east of the Guerrero region in which Villa began his days as an outlaw, is strongly in favor of the bandit chieftain. His success against Porfirio Diaz for eight years during all of which time there was a price on his head, due to loyalty of the people. Army officials believe that Herrera and his command will have every possible co-operation from the people of the district.

The reports make an important development in the American campaign to capture Villa, according to experienced observers of Mexican military affairs. It is pointed out that the reported renunciation of the Carranza standard by Herrera is the first to be made by an important military leader of the de facto government since the American troops crossed the international line.

The possible effect on other Carranza leaders who have been reported to be wavering in their loyalty to the government "first chief" was food for much discussion.

No reports were received as to the arms and equipment of the Herrera command.

General Herrera was military governor of Chihuahua at the time of the massacre of eighteen foreigners at Santa Ysabel.

Indisguised Apprehension Expressed In Washington.

Washington, March 23.—Grave apprehension regarding the outcome of the American expedition into Mexico in pursuit of Villa was evident for the first time in Washington last night after receipt by the War Department of a dispatch from General Funston saying that a report had reached him that 2,000 Carranza troops at Chihuahua under General Luis Herrera had revolted and aligned themselves with the bandit chief.

General Funston did not disclose the source of his information, and so far as could be learned, no confirmation had reached the State Department or the Mexican embassy.

Fear that the report might be true was not disguised in official circles, however, and last night's developments were awaited with tense anxiety.

The Scioto at Columbus reached within six feet of a record stage and became stationary, while the Muskingum and two Kanawhas did considerable damage.

You read the newspapers, don't you? Then you know, without our telling you, that woolen fabrics are getting higher, dyes are getting scarcer and everything else that enters into the makeup of clothing, even to the linen thread with which the buttons are sewed on, is advancing in price.

The suits we offer now were contracted for when conditions were less stringent. A good suit bought here now need cost you no more than the same suit would have cost you a year ago.

As far as style goes, our suits are better than ever—and we are showing a greater variety than in any previous season.

Come in and see what $10 to $20 will buy.

No War Prices on Silks at Hunt's

Have you examined the quality of our Crepe de Chines at $1.19? Of our Radium Silks at $1.25? Every condition of the silk market would justify higher prices. These silks were dyed while the best imported colors were still obtainable, consequently they have the luster and exquisite shades such dyes only can produce.

There is a wide range of colors, including white, ivory and black. These silks are 40 inches wide, full weight, very supple, and extremely rich in appearance. Positively no silks of like quality will be obtainable at the price after these are sold. It is an economic opportunity no woman can afford to neglect.

REPUBLICANS MAY CARRY THE SENATE.

The not unexpected death of Senator Shively of Indiana makes that state a political center of supreme importance this year, for there are two Senatorial seats now at stake in the Hoosier elections and the Republicans will strain every nerve to secure both of them. Happily, it is a united Republican party which will strive for these great political prizes in Indiana this year; and there is every prospect that the next Congress will see two Republicans in place of the two Democrats who have represented Indiana in the Senate since 1911.

The wisest political observers at Washington have long been of the opinion that a Republican President and a Republican House are sure to result from this year's elections. But there have been grave doubts in many quarters whether the Senate could be recaptured by a majority on the floor and without the deciding vote of the vice president.

The Democratic majority in the Senate now stands at sixteen. To regain the Senate to Republicanism means the taking of nine seats. Two of these will come from Indiana, as events now signify. In addition there is small question that the Republicans will win in Maine, New York, New Jersey, Ohio, West Virginia and Missouri.

This would divide the Senate equally on the floor and would put control into the hands of the Republican vice president.

The other states to elect Senators this year, where there is a chance to replace a Democrat with a Republican are Nebraska, Montana and Nevada—and in each of these states there is more than a fighting chance for Republicanism.

All this is predicated on the theory that none of the seats now held by Republicans will be lost to the enemy. In 1914, however, three such seats were taken from us.

The determination of the Republican leaders is to carry on a vigorous campaign everywhere that even a slight chance appears to secure a Senatorial seat. It now seems likely that the Republican victory next November will lack nothing in completeness.

The total German losses in the first two days of the Verdun fighting were 150,000. After two days more of it, the total losses for the four days were 100,000. Great heads, those dispatch writers.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Gave
Up in Despair. Husband
Came to Rescue.

Cañon, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Suffered Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good.

I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing all my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of continuous success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

Woman Suffrage and Democratic Expediency

The present Democratic incumbents of office in Kentucky have abandoned the high ground of just principle and essential righteousness, even the comparatively high ground of respect for tradition and established custom, and have resorted to the plitfully base plea of political expediency in their opposition to woman suffrage. It is scarcely just to say the Democratic party has chosen expediency above principle, but rather the present set of office-holders who came into office by connivance with special interests that here and everywhere dread the results of the woman vote. Verily whom the gods would destroy they first make glad.

Hells in Party Unshaken.

Family pride, church pride, pride of political party, is sensitive to reflection upon the integrity of those factors that enter into the warp and woof of one's being. The women born of generations of Democrats are slow to believe that the men of their blood really repudiate the principle of government of the people, for the people, by the people, the principle of majority rule, for the cheap, despicable tricks of party expediency, by gag rule to keep a certain set on the pig counter. They decline to believe that the men whom they know and honor, that the great uncorrupted and untrifled rank and file of Democrats willfully strangle the life out of democracy to keep office for certain men. They distinguish between a great party founded on eternal principle and a few office holding opportunists and time servers. They appeal from the betrayers to the party itself.

Senator's Conscience Wins.

State Senators who early in the session of the General Assembly just closed, announced their intention of voting against submitting the suffrage amendment on the ground of political expediency, on March 8 voted for the amendment after a caucus at which it is reliably reported it was decided that the submission of the amendment was not politically inexpedient.

One Senator said the suffrage question had given him more trouble than all the other measures the General Assembly had been called upon to consider. He knew, he said, that the enfranchisement of women was in principle right, that the state had no better, more useful and intelligent inhabitants than the women who had been at Frankfort asking for the passage of measures looking to the well-being of the people of the state, that the state was losing a tremendous social dynamite in shutting out of free participation in matters of government its women; but he wished to support the amendment. After a few weeks' wrestling between conscience and expediency the Senator voted for the amendment as his conscience dictated. The same struggle will take place in many another man, often the enemy of enfranchising women will be prejudiced, and in the end conscience will win.

One member of the Lower House frankly said to the writer in the presence of his wife, who is a suffragist, that he favored submission of the amendment but that he set out to support the administration and for that reason only voted against the amendment.

Would Split the Governor's Heels.

Governor Stanley is quoted as having said he could not allow the suffrage amendment to pass, for "it would split all my heels." If the Governor's heel has been soiled by the strain put upon it by his fetch-and-go-carry in the recent General Assembly, he has little to fear from anything that might befall it through the submission of the amendment.

Are Suffragists "Good Women?"

Senator James is quoted as having said on the floor of the Senate in 1914 that "the good women of Kentucky do not want the ballot." The senator seems a bit unfortunate in his acquaintance with the women of his state, or to say the least, his acquaintance must be very limited for one occupying his position. There are forty thousand women in the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, who are leaders in their respective communities in every movement for good as well as the protectors and promoters of many movements for the general good of the state. This powerful organization is unapologetically committed to woman suffrage after many years of trying to reach the ends aimed at by the "indirect influence" route, the great Woman's Christian Temperance Union advocates woman suffrage as it advocates the abolition of the liquor traffic and the suppression of commercialized vice; the presidents and leaders of the great women's missionary societies, some of them women of national fame, are ardent suffragists; the great body of women teachers in the state are for the most part suffragists; the women college deans and women college professors are suffragists; the woman who founded moonlight schools and first led a state fight, now a national fight, against illiteracy, is a suffragist; the woman who has for years made an ever growing crusade against blindness in Kentucky and who during many sessions of the General Assembly has gone back and forth from Lexington to Frankfort carrying a little basket of cold luncheon because she was spending not only her strength but her substance without remuneration in this effort to secure legislation to relieve and prevent blindness, is a suffragist; the woman who with all her endowments of distinguished presence, graceful speech, social prestige and large wealth is devoting them all to the work of lifting the unfortunate and to establishing a vocational training school for girls, is a suffragist; the woman who is leading in the heroic effort to close the door above which is written for every woman "Abandon hope all ye who enter here," is a suffragist; the woman who with frail body but heroic soul has for years unflinchingly labored to have the epileptic and the adult feeble-minded better cared for, is a suffragist; the woman who led the movement for better school laws in Kentucky lead the suffragists; the woman who inaugurated and led the anti-tuberculosis crusade in Kentucky leads also the suffragists; and the list of good women who are suffragists is scarcely begun.

Why Women Want Ballot.

These women want the ballot because they believe they have civic duty to perform and civic responsibility to meet and they believe they can perform this duty and meet this responsibility with less outlay of time, money and strength and do it better with the ballot than without it. They prefer to work with men as fellow citizens, not as masters and supplicants. They wish to have an equal chance with those who differ from them with legislators and executive officers.

Senator Should Meet Them.

It is a pity that the senator has not in his social orbit met some of these women. It might be that he would catch inspiration for his own tasks from their zeal for those things that make for good government and a happy, prosperous people, and history might set him down with the leaders for human emancipation from ignorance, disease, poverty and vice and not with the last of the liquorists.

Congressman in Different Case.

The Congressman who joined the Senator in signing the telegram to the Governor advising against submission of the suffrage amendment can hardly claim that he does not know that good women in Kentucky advocate suffrage for women. Perhaps he knows too well the childlike insistence and persistence that characterize the minds of women—that they never stop asking a question until they get the answer. If women had the ballot, a candidate for Congress resting under the definite, specific, detailed charge made over the sworn affidavits of responsible men of having in the State Senate accepted a bribe, of having as State Senator and as lobbyist conspired against the interest of the state in favor of special interests, would when election returns were in, find himself a statesman out of a job. He does well in his own interests to defer to political expediency. Women would argue that the charges were either true or untrue. If true the candidate would be held unfit for Congress. If untrue those making the charges would be sent to the penitentiary instead of riding the high roads as sheriffs, bank presidents, brokers, Commissioners of Agriculture, State Senators, etc.

Senator James' Negro Boy.

Two years ago Senator James raised the boy of the negro woman vote to rally the timid and the time serving to the anti-suffrage flag.

According to the Federal census of 1900, 15 per cent of the population of Kentucky were negroes. The census of 1910 shows 11.4 per cent negroes, a decrease of 3.6 per cent, showing that the negro population is growing relatively smaller. Can not the 88.6 per cent of white swing the 11.6 per cent negroes? But the census shows 75,494 negro men (already enfranchised) and 74,739 negro women to be enfranchised. Since there are 755 more negro men than negro women, the enfranchisement of women would increase the proportion of white voters. But Senator James argues that all the negro women would vote and that out of 511,831 white women, not as many as 74,739 would vote to offset the negro woman vote. It is an unwarranted charge against woman's fidelity to duty. If the issue involved anything of worth, white women could be depended upon to do their duty. They always have been able to subordinate the important to the more important, to learn bridge whilst, plunk teas, Spanish pickles, tating and crocheting when a real call came. Is it possible that the party with which the negro woman would be supposed to vote would be able to secure her support while the dominant party could not inspire its women with loyalty and a sense of duty and responsibility?

Nobody really believes that Democratic women would see the Democratic party defeated by the negro woman vote if the Democratic platform were worth walking around the corner to support, and since enfranchising women would have a voice in making the platform, it would have in their estimation at least some planks worthy of their efforts to support.

Justice For Negro Women.

White women in Kentucky are willing to organize negro women and teach them the proper use of the ballot; the white women will outnumber the negro women and make their vote a negligent quantity if the same demands it; but remembering that negro women have washed, ironed, cooked, scrubbed, taken care of the children, (taken the knocks and cuffs of idle, drunken negro men, Kentucky white women are unwilling to heap upon those negro women the added indignity and injustice of a qualified suffrage for women, designed not only to leave the negro woman out of the electorate while leaving the negro man in. They do not ask discrimination in favor of women, they ask only for suffrage on the same terms as men.

An Inexpedient Expediency.

There is a phase of the question which the would-be astute Democratic Senator and Congressman overlooked. The Democratic party allowed the Republican party to enfranchise a large body of men and these latest additions to the electorate vote for the most part the straight Republican ticket, not because they know any more about a protective tariff or a tariff for revenue only than they know about the canals on Mars; but they do have a sense of negligence to the party that enfranchised them. This is due not to a negro trait but to a human trait.

Party lines are becoming more and more lax. The Independent in politics has held the balance of power in Kentucky for more than twenty years and the tendency to vote regardless of the party last grows. If the Democratic and Republican parties show toward woman suffrage the same attitude, unless the issue at some election involves a question that appeals to women more strongly than party success, no doubt women will divide politically approximately on the lines of family tradition and association just as men do now.

But if Democratic leaders continue to destroy the confidence and offend the sense of justice of women by talking as if fundamental Democratic principle were a thing to bandy about at the behest of party expediency, the measure of woman's disappointed faith and revulsion will be the measure of her erstwhile confidence and loyalty, and if she has to be a Republican in order to be a democrat, she can do it, and no doubt will. Woman's loyalty to the Democratic party is a loyalty to the principles of democracy, not loyalty to a set of trickster office holders who want to keep their jobs. "I could not love these half so well loved I not honor more."

Kentucky Should Lead Southern States

The present set of office holders notwithstanding, this writer has unshaken faith that Kentucky will be the first southern state to avail herself of the bid to good government that now lies latent in the public spirit and intelligent devotion of her women. It would be in keeping with her history and tradition, in keeping with the high regard in which her men have always held her women and the loyalty and pride her women have in her men.

The possible exception is Tennessee where the suffrage amendment must pass two successive Legislatures before being submitted to the voters. It passed the Legislature in 1915 and will no doubt pass the next in 1917. The people of Tennessee are a most admirable body of men and women, who have shown their ability to co-operate in the long struggle in which they have together eliminated a factor that will materially lessen the opposition to woman suffrage in that state but which is still a chief factor to be overcome in Kentucky.

Take States Right Route.

Let the party of the state rights in Kentucky take the states rights route, for recognizing the political equality of its women. It is a dastardly trick to oppose woman suffrage in the Federal Congress on the ground of states rights and then wire from Washington to Frankfort some body of political expediency. If the Democratic party has so little merit that it fears the acid test of practical application of democratic principles, no amount of political expediency can save it.

Democrats May Yet Retriever.

Up to the sitting of the just closed General Assembly women had heard little of Democratic expediency. They took the action of the Democratic state convention as due to a natural conservatism and aloneness to readjust to changed conditions and were willing to continue the campaign of education, patient with what they thought was the honest inertia of their men. They still believe in all their hearts in the vast body of Democratic men; but they confess to a burning impatience with a set of usurping politicians who will not allow the voters to pass on this basic question.

There will be a Democratic convention this summer that will have opportunity to say to women we have faith enough in the electorate that the question of your enfranchisement be threshed out in the open forum and settled at the polls.

Another General Assembly will sit before the term of the present Governor expires. If the convention neglects its opportunity and the next General Assembly repeats the performances of the one just adjourned, Democrats who place principle above party will resent the indignity to their women and to their own right to pass upon this question and all the Republican party will have to do to carry the next state election will be to nominate good men. —(Contributed.)

Hudson Super-Six

Hasty Buying May Mean Long-Regrets

If you can't get a Super-Six today—wait for it. Don't be persuaded into buying an inferior car. Don't allow your good judgment to be stampeded by a clever salesman. Don't be hasty in buying, or you may be a long, long time regretting.

There is a wonderful new principle embodied in the Super-Six motor. How marvelous that discovery is you will never realize until after you have owned and driven your own car. There is no "hunk," no "hot air," no misrepresentation of any kind in the car, in the advertising, in the dealer's statement.

The Super-Six is just what we say. It does just what we say. It has proved to the satisfaction of American Automobile Association officials, and scores of prominent engineers to be everything that we claim.

But—you can not enjoy the advantages that are waiting for your acceptance if you rush hastily into the purchase of an ordinary car rather than wait a few days, or weeks, for your Super-Six.

The spring buyer is eager for his new car. He thinks he can not wait. But if he gets it during the months of snow, mud, bad weather and bad roads he can do little with it. How much better to drive the old car—or none—and get delivery of his Super-Six all bright, beautiful, and fresh at a time when roads are good, weather is settled, and he can enjoy his new car to the full.

The Super-Six is worth waiting for. You never can know how well worth it until after you drive it. If you give up the Super-Six hastily, carelessly, without thoroughly understanding what you are missing, you'll have some long, long regrets ahead of you.

Call and see us about this car.

WANTS TO FREE HENRY YOUTSEY

Lexington, Ky., March 22.—Daniel E. O'Sullivan, chairman state prison board, a Democrat, yesterday announced that next Tuesday he would ask pardon for Henry E. Youtsey, serving a life term in the penitentiary for the assassination of State Senator William Goebel in 1899. Youtsey is the last man in prison out of more than forty who were first accused, James Howard and Caleb Powers, Republicans, were pardoned by Republican Governor Willson.

The announcement of O'Sullivan caused a state wide sensation. Practically the whole prosecution of men accused in the Goebel assassination were Democrats who succeeded Republican officeholders when the Republicans were thrown out of office in the hottest campaign the south ever knew. The matter made political capital for years, and has resulted in Caleb Powers, for two terms Republican in Congress from the Eleventh Kentucky district, being ostracized by Kentucky colleagues because they believed him guilty of conspiracy resulting in the Goebel murder.

5,000 MINERS IDLE

Bridgeport, O., March 22.—One hundred engineers in eastern Ohio mines struck yesterday for 40 cents an hour and an eight hour day. As a result 5,000 miners were locked out. The engineers say they work twelve hours a day.

HEALTH AND INCOME.

Both Kept Up On Scientific Food.

Good, sturdy health helps one a lot to make money. With the loss of health one's income is liable to shrink, if not entirely dwindle away.

When a young lady has to make her own living, good health is her best asset.

"I am alone in the world," writes a Chicago girl, "dependent on my own efforts for my living. I am a clerk, and through close application to work and a boarding-house diet, I became nervous, and got so bad off it was almost impossible for me to keep up in the office."

"A friend suggested to me the idea of trying Grape-Nuts food which I did, making it a large part of at least two meals a day."

"Today I am free from dyspepsia and the ill of an overworked and improperly nourished brain and body. To Grape-Nuts I owe the recovery of my health, and the ability to retain my position and income." "There's a Reason." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

MYSTERIOUS MOVES IN AMERICAN FLEET.

Washington, March 22.—The cruiser North Carolina, with four hydro-aeroplanes aboard, was yesterday ordered from Pensacola, Fla., to the naval base at Guantanamo.

Officials said there was no special significance attached to the movement.

The Navy Department was silent regarding the mission of the gunboat Wheeling, which left New Orleans last night for "southern waters." Officials refused either to confirm or deny that "southern waters" meant a Mexican port.

TRAIN BLOWN FROM TRACK IN INDIANA CYCLONE.

Marion, Ind., March 22.—Cloverleaf passenger train No. 5, "Commercial Traveler," was blown from the track four miles east of Marion last night during a cyclone which passed through this vicinity about 11 o'clock. The train was overturned and wrecked while going at a high rate of speed, it was reported. Physicians have gone to the scene. Details are slowly coming in on account of communication being destroyed.

KILLED FRIEND BECAUSE HE BETRAYED WILSON.

Cannonsburg, Pa.—Rescuing an attack on President Wilson's Mexican policy, Morris Argeris shot his friend, Gustave Sellis, through the heart, while they were preparing to go to work. Argeris gave himself up to the police. He said he believed himself justified in killing any man who attacked the President. There was not a sign of remorse shown by the prisoner. Both men are Greeks.

TOWN DESTROYED AND SCORE SLAIN.

Galveston, Tex., March 22.—The town of Delicias in southwestern Coahuila was wiped off the map by Villa bandits' last week, according to information reaching the border.

It is said that more than twenty of the inhabitants were killed during the raid and that every house was burned after being robbed. Whether any Americans lost their lives in the raid is not known.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. DIFFICULT JOB

Is the Absorption of Federal Ball Players—National League Clubs May Find Friction.

Boston, Mass.—Although peace between the warring baseball factions was officially declared with the death of the Federal League at New York last December, and the consequent reception of Wegman and Ball into the ranks of the major league magnates seemingly dispelled the last cloud, dissension and disruption are said to await the opening of the regular playing season. Before the campaign of 1916 is fairly under way, trouble threatens to kill the aspirations of more than one candidate for the pennant in both leagues.

The Federal League is dead but not forgotten. If any one has any doubt that the issues are entirely alive, just let him listen to the mutterings that are emanating from every big league camp.

Strange to say, these mutterings come not from those who jumped to the Feds and have lately been restored to good standing in the game, but rather from those who remained true to organized ball, and now feel that they are literally made "the fall guys." Had organized baseball held true to its promise, that the bars would be kept up against the players who listened to the lure of the big coin, the white dove of peace served so lavishly at the Waldorf banquet might have come to stay.

Seldom indeed has a team which has been split by international dissension ever been able to win a pennant. And from the disrupted conditions that are said to exist in no less than nine of the big league teams this spring, it can readily be seen that it will take all the diplomacy of magnates and manager to bring out the best that there is in their players.

When the Federal League threw down the gauntlet, went out after organized baseball's biggest stars and caused men like Lee Magee, Hal Chase, Seton, Hendrix and a host of others to forego their contracts and cast their fortunes with the invaders, those who remained faithful were congratulated for their loyalty and given assurances that they would be the gainers in the end.

"The outlaws can't last," these players were told. "The day of reckoning will come, the jumpers will be cast out of baseball and you who have stood by the colors will reap the reward." True to prediction, the Federal League had to give up the ghost, but it is the only part of the prophecy that was verified. The big money getters, with two and three year contracts still in their possession, are back again the fold, playing for much larger salaries than the majority of those who remained with the old leagues receive. Is it not strange that the faithful are lamenting their loyalty, or that strained relations are whispered about?

Most of the prodigals have found the fatted calf steaming hot in the vulgar clubs of the National League. It is there that the full will come, unless some superhuman system of mixing oil and water can be devised.

The Boston Braves, admittedly strong contenders for this year's bunting, have thrown wide the doors for Konetchy, Allen and Knetzer, the former a jumper from the Pirates. Another so-called star of the Federal League brand is said to be likely to wear the Braves' uniform this year.

The Giants have purchased the modest Benay Kauff, who has no idea that he can play ball, or that the decision of pennants, the fashion in hats, the settlement of the war or the speed of the planets depend upon him. Roush is another Fed that McGraw has gathered in, and there is also Bill Hardison who jumped from the Braves. Pat Moran, head of the National League champions, has threatened harmony in his club by signing up Chief Bender, also a Federal star, and who is reputed to have sown dissension in Connie Mack's Athletics in 1914.

The Cincinnati club has thrown wide the portals and the Fed recruits have rushed in. Moneny, Anderson and Loudon, all jumpers, have been added to the roster, and their accession only adds to the trouble that arose when Wingo was given a big increase in salary over Tom Clarke. The Cubs, sending loyal and efficient players to the minors, have signed up Steve Yerkes and Doolan for the infield, two or three Fed catchers and a host of outfield recruits and Fed twirlers.

The St. Louis Browns have discarded the veteran Jimmy Austin and replaced him with Charlie Deal, a jumper. Other Feds have been injected into the lineup. Pittsburgh has secured Wilson, who jumped from the Giants. The New York Highlanders have secured Lee Magee at a fabulous price. These are but a few of the men who have been restored to good standing by the magnates and it is easy to see how their return to the ranks is bound to start some lively dissensions in the clubs to which they have been assigned.

KANSAS TOWNS WIPED OUT BY PRAIRIE FIRE.

Topeka, Kas., March 22.—According to reports reaching Ness City, the town of Uteia in western Kansas, has been destroyed as the result of a prairie fire. Telephone wires are down. Scott City received reports that the town of Modoc, west of Uteia, has also been destroyed.

There is an extraordinary echo in the Cathedral at Pisa. If you sing two notes there is no reverberation, but if you sing three they are taken up, swelled and prolonged into a beautiful harmony.

GAINS 40 POUNDS IN 40 DAYS

REMARKABLE RESULTS OF THE NEW TISSUE BUILDER, TONOLINE TABLETS, IN MANY CASES OF RY-DOWN MEN AND WOMEN.

PROVE IT YOURSELF BY BUYING a box of Tonoline Tablets NOW.

"By George, I never saw anything like the effects of that new treatment, Tonoline Tablets, for building up of weight and lost nerve force. It acted more like a miracle than a medicine," said a well known gentleman yesterday in speaking of the revolution that had taken place in his condition. "I began to think that there was nothing on earth that could make me fat. I tried tonics, digestives, heavy eating, diet, milk, beer and almost everything else you could think of."

Any man or woman who is thin can recover normal weight by the best new treatment, Tonoline Tablets. "I have been thin for years and began to think it was natural for me to be that way. Finally I read about the remarkable processes brought about by use of Tonoline Tablets so I decided to try myself. Well, when I look at myself in the mirror now, I think it is somebody else. I have put on just forty pounds during the last forty days, and never felt stronger."

Tonoline Tablets are a powerful inducer to nutrition, increases cell-growth, food, increases the number of blood corpuscles and as a necessary result, builds up muscles, and solid healthy flesh, and rounds out the figure.

For women who can never appear stylish in anything they wear because of their thinness, this remarkable treatment may prove a revelation. It is a healthy maker as well as a form builder and nerve strengthener.

SIGNS OF DANGER.

That Should Be Heeded By Maysville People.

There's serious danger in neglecting any weakness of the kidneys. The warning that Nature gives should not be overlooked. If troubled by too frequent passage of the kidney secretions; burning or scalding; if the secretions are highly colored and contain sediment when left standing—if you have backache, too, with frequent headaches and dizziness, make up your mind that your kidneys are affected and begin using some reliable kidney remedy. Deaths from kidney disease have increased in the United States alone, 72 per cent in the last 20 years. The risk is great—you can't afford to delay. Maysville people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Can you ask for better proof of merit than the statement of this Maysville resident?

W. F. Lynch, 127 W. Third St., Maysville, Ky., says: "My kidneys were weak and the passages of the kidney secretions were scanty and painful. Having used Doan's Kidney Pills before, I again got a box and they quickly restored my kidneys to a normal condition."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Lynch had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

CLOSED GOOD SEASON.

(Ripley Bee.)

The Ripley loose leaf tobacco warehouse closed a very successful season last week, selling 2,800,000 pounds of tobacco. While the number of crops sold over the market equaled those of last year, yet the crop weighed out much lighter than heretofore, accounting for the number of pounds it fell short of last season. Manager Drake is much pleased with the showing this year, and is proud of the excellent sales made, as the average of the Ripley house equaled that of any house in the burley district.

Important Announcement to the Public!

As is now generally known, we have purchased the entire Clothing and Men's Shoe stock, with fixtures and good will of the old, reliable J. Wesley Lee store and propose to continue business at the same stand. It will be our purpose to handle only a high-class line of merchandise and we will greatly appreciate the continued patronage of Mr. Lee's customers and that of as many more friends as will favor us with their trade. So much for a brief introduction.

NOW FOR A MONEY-SAVING STARTER

Doubtless you are familiar, to a certain extent, with the price advance in certain clothing lines, and the prospect is that prices will continue to be increased. However, having purchased Mr. Lee's high-grade stock in bulk at a figure that will permit it, we have, instead of marking goods UP, made substantial price reductions all along the line and we can and do promise intending Men's Clothing or Shoe purchasers values not obtainable elsewhere at this time. Come in; seeing is believing.

Clara Kimball Young

In a World Feature

"Heart of the Blue Ridge"

A STORY with many thrills, the scenes of which are laid in the Blue Ridge Mountains of Virginia in the moon-shine district, where hate never dies out when a man is once your enemy. Throughout the entire story there is plenty of intense action and a pretty little romance that has much to do with the main plot. If you want to see a play that is close to human nature don't miss this one.

Admission 10c to All. Matinee at 2:30 O'clock.

I CAN'T SEE

Are you one of those who can not see why you should have your eyes examined properly when you need glasses? Do you realize that nine cases out of ten the sight in both eyes is different? Consequently, when you need glasses, you should let us examine your eyes, for we examine each eye separately, thereby assuring you that you get the correct lenses over each organ of vision. Broken lenses duplicated.

TO ERECT NEW CHURCH.

At a recent meeting of the officers of the Paris Presbyterian church, the matter of building a new house of worship on the present site of the old building was discussed. The Presbyterian congregation have had under consideration plans for remodeling the old building, which, it is said, would cost about $10,000, and several members of the church favor tearing away the old building and putting up a modern and up-to-date structure.

Tuesday the Russell National Bank received $132,000 in currency and $2,000 in gold on C. & O. train No. 3 from New York.
